FAMINE IN IRELAND.

DUBLIN, December 16.—At a public meeting last night the Parliamentary party denounced the Government for taking steps to relieve the famine in the west of Ireland.

Miss Nellie Holmes, treasurer of the Young Woman's Temperance Association of Buffalo, N. Y., strongly advises all suffering women to rely, as she did, upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Your medicine is indeed an ideal woman's medicine, and by far the best I know to restore lost health and strength. I suffered misery for several years, being troubled with menorrhagia. My back ached, I had bearing-down pains and frequent headaches. I would often wake from restful sleep, and in such pain that I suffered for hours before I could go to sleep again. I dreaded the long nights as much as the weary days. I consulted two different physicians, hoping to get relief, but, finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me, I tried your Vegetable Compound on the recommendation of a friend from the East who was visiting me.

"I am glad that I followed her advice, for every ache and pain is gone, and not only this, but my general health is much improved. I have a fine appetite and have gained in flesh. My earnest advice to suffering women is to put away all other medicines and to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Miss NELLIE HOLMES, 540 No. Division St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Irene Crosby, prominent in Social Life in East Savannah, Ga., adds her testimonial to the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—"It always gives me pleasure to find an article of real value and unquestioned merit. I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound well calculated to relieve and cure the various troubles arising from irregularities and menstrual pains.

"Much suffering could be spared if we only paid more attention to proper living and diet, but as long as women do not do this, your Vegetable Compound has come to the front as a true friend in need. I have been very pleased indeed with the relief it has brought me. I find that I have perfect health now, and that my mind is also more clear and active since I used your Vegetable Compound. It has been of great benefit to me, and I gladly recommend it. Very sincerely yours, Miss Irene Crosby, 313 East Charlton St., East Savannah, Ga."

Remember that every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her case or symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and is cheerfully given to any ailing woman who asks for it.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT IS PAU

LAST PERFORMANCE OF PLEAS-
ING OPERETTA AT THE OPERA HOUSE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

The operetta of "The House That Jack Built," was given as a matinee performance at the Hawaiian Opera House yesterday afternoon. The theatre was filled, very largely by children, the matinee performance being largely for their benefit, parents not liking to take young children to a theatrical performance in the evening. Because of the character of the audience the production was possibly more thoroughly enjoyed than were previous performances. To many of those who attended, it was their first glimpse of theatricals. There was riveted attention and open-mouthed interest as the characters of the Mother Goose rhymes appeared in actual life on the stage, and the incidents were actually enacted. The performance was fully equal to the previous ones, as a performance, and gained something from the largely juvenile audience that saw it.

Miss Martin, under whose direction the operetta has been so successfully and satisfactorily presented, did a very graceful thing just before the performance began. She presented each of the members of the orchestra and each of the principals in the operetta with a bouquet of flowers, with a little note of appreciation of their helpfulness.

Much credit is due the members of the Symphony Society who gave their time and services in the orchestra.

The weather at the close of the performance was rainy and blustery, and created some consternation and a great deal of planning and apprehension on the part of elders to get the children all home safely and without ruining fancy dresses or tempers with water.

Altogether, few entertainments of any character have given so much satisfaction to the public at large and to those who took part in them, or has yielded as handsomely for the benevolence to be benefited.

THE MINORITY REPORT

The minority report is as follows:
Honorable Sanford H. Dole, Judge of United States District Court, Territory of Hawaii.

Sir: A minority of the Grand Jury empaneled and sworn and charged by you on the 12th day of December, A. D. 1904, begs to submit herewith the following report:

We dissent from the report of the majority of this Grand Jury as we believe sufficient evidence has been produced for this Grand Jury which, if properly brought out, would have secured a conviction for offenses against the election laws of the United States, viz: Sections 5408, 5409 and 5508 of the Revised Statutes, if taken before a Trial Jury.

Other alleged violations of Federal laws besides those testified to by the witnesses present came to the knowledge of this jury in the course of their deliberations, and were not investigated.

There was an absolute refusal on the part of the majority of this Grand Jury to further pursue investigations which in the opinion of the minority would undoubtedly expose numerous other frauds and violations of the law punishable in this jurisdiction.

The names of 27 witnesses, besides those summoned were presented to the jury and evidence given as to what they would testify to, showing conclusively the corrupt and fraudulent methods adopted with respect to the late election throughout the entire territory.

When Colonel C. P. Laukea, the defeated candidate for Delegate to Congress, applied to the U. S. District Attorney with a list of witnesses, he replied as follows:

Mr. Breckons to Mr. Laukea: "Up to the present time nobody has laid before me, as District Attorney any complaint of any violation of the Federal laws relative to the recent election. You now hand me a list, headed 'Witnesses who should be subpoenaed before a Federal Grand Jury.' I decline to receive any dictation as to what persons shall be brought before the Grand Jury to prove violations of Federal laws. In the matter of subpoenaing witnesses I shall be guided by my own judgment or the directions of the Grand Jury itself. In declining to subpoena witnesses in accordance with your dictation, I do so for the reason that I know nothing whatever of what such witnesses might testify to. Any future communications with me on the subject must be had in writing."

Mr. Laukea replied: "Mr. Breckons, it is not in any way suggestive, I hand you this list, so that you can use it at your own discretion."

Mr. Breckons replied: "I reply that I shall lay before the Grand Jury what has happened relative to subpoenaing witnesses. That is all I have to say."

It is a matter of common knowledge that the voting this last election was substantially not secret. Probably a majority of the total number of ballots cast throughout the Territory were numbered, so that the identity of the voter of each ballot so cast could be conclusively established. This was due in the main to the neglect, and in some cases, the refusal of inspectors to remove from the ballot its number before placing it in the ballot box.

It is claimed that this failure to insure the secrecy of the ballot, specifically provided for by law, on the part of those to whom the enforcement of the law was intrusted, came about not through design but through the stupidity and ignorance of the inspectors. It is unfortunate in this connection that the failure to carry out the law result-

MAY CROSS-EXAMINED

The concluding portion of the direct testimony given by Emmet May yesterday afternoon showed clearly that it will be used as an argument by the defense that the prosecution of May was undertaken mainly as a means of revenge. Questioned by Attorney Dunne he admitted that he had called Attorney Biting a "blackmailing scoundrel" and that he had also told Mrs. Bettencourt that Biting was a "drunken slyster." When the accused had met Biting on the street about the time that he heard the case had been brought to the attention of the Grand Jury, Biting had said that he was merely acting as counsel for Mrs. Bettencourt, that he had applied the tencourt. He had reminded the witnesses mentioned.

Attorney General Andrews commenced the cross examination along lines to show what sort of a concern was the Pacific Mill Company in which May says he invested Mrs. Bettencourt's $1000 but Judge Robinson ruled against this line of questioning. The Attorney General insisted that it made a great deal to the advantage of those to whom the enforcement of this law was intrusted, to wit, the party in power. It would be extremely unfortunate for the good name of this Territory if the failure to secure the secrecy of the ballot should have come about through the hands of the very administration which was seeking to enforce a straight party vote from every one receiving employment from the government.

We believe that further investigation should be had not only on the vital point, whether the neglect to secure the secrecy of the ballot was through design or inadvertence, but also to determine fully what steps should be taken to prevent a repetition of this evil. But the majority of the Grand Jury have declined to make any further investigation, and the minority are helpless to enforce it. Perhaps further investigation may be futile, but we believe it should be made. There is no evidence before us yet upon which we could determine whether the wholesale deprivation of the voters of this Territory, of their lawful right to a secret vote, was through design or inadvertence, nor will our investigations justify any specific recommendations as to the cure; but in any event we believe, the territorial government is responsible for non-enforcement of the law. How deep this neglect has been, and whether criminal or not, as to any particular official or officials, we are not prepared to say, but we believe the territorial government had it in its power by vigilance and proper precautions to have secured a far better enforcement of the election laws than was secured to the voter this past election; and we recommend to the consideration of Congress, which has the control of our election laws in its hands, that the defects in the law which can permit such wholesale disregard of vital features of our election laws, be remedied so as to make it impossible that there should be a repetition of the unsatisfactory methods in vogue this last election.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN EFFINGER,
S. M. DAMON,
J. J. SPITZER,
H. A. WILDER,
H. MCCORRISTON.

The report was signed as above though Foreman Damon stated that Juror McDonald, who was not present, was also a sign.
